Frequently Asked Questions regarding Written Test for Recruitment to the post of Junior Assistant (Directorate and District level) in the Forest Department

Q.1. How can I appear for two test on the same at same time?

Ans. For both the post i.e. Junior Assistant Directorate level and Junior Assistant District Level, there will be only 1 (one) written test to be held on 9th July 2017 from 11 am to 1 pm. However, two separate merit lists will be prepared for these two posts, respectively. The candidates who had applied for both the posts shall only be considered in the merit list of each post, but the candidates who have applied for one post shall be considered in the merit list only the post they had applied for.

Q.2. I have been issued two admit cards one for Junior Assistant Directorate level and another for Junior Assistant District level, what am I supposed to do with these two admit cards?

Ans. Candidates who had applied for both the post i.e. Junior Assistant Directorate level and Junior Assistant District level in separate applications are eligible for being considered in the different merit list of each of these two posts. Although, they shall write only one written test, but they shall be considered in the two merit list separately. The two admit card issued are with the Roll Nos for these two posts which will have to be entered separately in the place shown in the sample OMR sheet given below:

Ⓐ - Roll No. Junior Assistant Directorate level

Ⓑ - Roll No. Junior Assistant District level

Note: A Candidate must read instructions before filling this OMR sheet After examination is over the candidate must fold below at perforation to carry candidate's carbon copy alongwith him/her.
